Profile

Independent Frontend Developer with over 3 years of experience in building modern and responsive web applications using React, JavaScript, HTML5, and CSS/SCSS.

Through freelance projects, I have worked on the full development cycle, from planning and design to REST API integration and performance optimization. Adaptable to various work environments, with a strong focus on UX details and responsive design.

I rely on an analytical approach and precision, with a clear vision of the end goal. I combine technical expertise with an understanding of real user needs, enabling me to create solutions that are functional, intuitive, and pleasant to use.

My previous long-term experience in banking has shaped my organizational and communication skills, which I now apply in teamwork and software development.
